FROM: Assistant General Counsel

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

STATINTL

STATINTL

1. In a further telephone conversation with Commander Warner, who is the accountable officer in the Navy Department with respect to [REDACTED] retired pay, it was ascertained that the method of resolving the question concerning payment of [REDACTED] retired pay, concurrently with receipt of compensation from this Agency, will be through submission of a claim over [REDACTED] signature through Commander Warner and the appropriate Navy channels. The claim then would be transmitted to Washington through the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts to Navy JAG, and then to the Comptroller General. We have requested, and Commander Warner has agreed to supply, a copy of his letter forwarding the claim.
